

i dislike to use ip address to make videophone calls since anyone can go thru my computer. i prefer phone number all the time. why can't another company remove small item in device to prevent any company to call thru. all phone companies and pagers can go thru no matter what kind of company they have their phones and pagers. i think it is a joke to prevent phone number to call another kind of company like sorensen.